

Local Rapid Response Teams are Here to Help!

Local Rapid Response teams can help you navigate your business through the challenging process of closures, downsizing, and layoffs. We can assist with the development and implementation of a transition strategy, and get you connected to resources.

Frequently Asked Questions

What resources are available should I need to close my business?

- ✓ Oregon Rapid Response Resources

What are the business and employee resources for COVID related business closures?

- ✓ COVID 19 Related Business Layoffs, Closures & Employment Insurance

Is there help if I need to temporarily reduce my workforce?

- ✓ Oregon Work Share Program

What are the rules regarding a WARN notice, and how do I file one?

- ✓ WARN Act Information

Workforce Innovation & Opportunity Act (WIOA) Funding

- ✓ Many services are offered at no cost to you or your employees

- ✓ Offering Rapid Response services to your employees during layoffs or business closures may result in multiple benefits to you as an employer

- ✓ Early involvement is essential to helping you and your employees prepare to re-enter the workforce as quickly and as seamlessly as possible

- ✓ All services are customized and tailored to the unique needs of your business

Contact Mike Scroggs, Rapid Response Coordinator for East Cascades North, for more information:

mscroggs@cgcc.edu

541-386-6300

WorkSource East Cascades is an equal opportunity employer/program. Auxiliary aids and services and alternate formats are available to individuals with disabilities, TTY/TDD – dial 711 toll free relay service or access online at www.sprint.relayonline.com. Language services are available at no cost to individuals with limited English proficiency upon request. This program is financed with funds provided through East Cascades Works, the Higher Education Coordinating Commission, the U.S. Department of Labor.